THE INTERNAL REVENUE ACT.

[OFFICIAL]

Laws of the United States.

Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress

[Public Act—No. [illegible]]

[illegible]

An Act to provide internal revenue to support the Government and to pay interest on the public debt [illegible]

[illegible]

Sec 86 And be it further enacted, That on and after the first day of August, eighteen hundred and sixty-two there shall be levied [illegible] salaries [illegible] payments to persons in the civil, military, naval [illegible] employment or service of the United States [illegible] Senators and Representatives [illegible] of Congress, when exceeding the rate of six hundred dollars per annum, a duty of three per centum on the excess above the said six hundred dollars; and it shall be the duty of all paymasters and all disbursing officers under the Government of the United States, or in the employ thereof when making any payments to officers and persons as aforesaid, or upon settling and adjusting the accounts of such officers and persons to deduct and withhold the aforesaid duty of three per centum and shall at the same time make a certificate stating the name of the officer or person from whom such deduction was made, and the amount thereof which shall be transmitted to the office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and entered as part of the internal duties; and the pay roll receipts or account of officers or persons paying such duty as aforesaid, shall be made to exhibit the fact of such payment.

Sec 87 And be it further enacted, That for every passport issued from the office of the Secretary of State after the thirtieth day of June eighteen hundred and sixty two there shall be paid the sum of three dollars which amount may be paid to any collector appointed under this act and his receipt therefor shall be forwarded with the application for such passport to the office of the Secretary of State, or any agent appointed by him. And the collectors shall account for all moneys received for passports in the manner hereinbefore provided, and a like amount shall be paid for every passport issued by any minister or consul of the United States, who shall account therefor to the treasury.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Sec. 88 And be it further enacted, That on and after the first day of August, eighteen hundred and sixty two there shall be levied, collected, and paid by any person or persons, firm or company publishing any newspaper, magazine, review, or other literary scientific or news publication issued periodically on the gross receipts for all advertisements, or all matters for the insertion of which in said newspaper or other publication, as aforesaid, [illegible] [illegible] sheets, or [illegible] the same, pay is required or received a duty of three per centum; and the person or persons, firm or company owning, possessing, or having the care or management of any and every such newspaper or other publication, as aforesaid, shall make a list or return quarterly, commencing as hereinbefore mentioned containing the gross amount of receipts as aforesaid, and the amount of duties which have accrued thereon, and render the same to the assistant assessor of the respective districts where such newspaper, magazine, review, or other literary or news publication is or may be published, which list or return shall have annexed a declaration, under oath or affirmation, to be made according to the manner and form which may be from time to time prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal [illegible] of the owner possessor or person having the care or management of such newspaper, magazine, review, or other publication, as aforesaid, that the same is true and correct, and shall also, quarterly and at the time of making said list or return, pay to the collector or deputy collector of the district, as aforesaid, the full amount of said duties; and in case of neglect or refusal to comply with any of the provisions contained in this section, or to make and render said list or return, as aforesaid, for the space of thirty days after the time when said list or return ought to have been made as aforesaid, the assistant assessor of the respective districts shall proceed to estimate the duties, as hereinbefore provided in other cases of delinquency, and in case of neglect or refusal to pay the duties as aforesaid, for the space of thirty days after said duties become due and payable, said owner, possessor, or person or persons having the care or management of said newspapers or publications, as aforesaid, shall pay, in addition thereto a penalty of five per centum on the amount due, and in case of fraud or evasion, whereby the revenue is attempted to be defrauded, or the duty withheld, said owners, possessors or person or persons having the care or management of said newspapers or other publications, as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay a penalty of five hundred dollars for each offence [illegible] sum fraudulently [illegible] and all provisions in this act in relation to lists, assessment, and collection, not incompatible herewith, shall apply to this section and the objects herein embraced Provided That in all cases where the rate or price of advertising is fixed by any law of the United States, State or Territory, it shall be lawful for the company, person or persons publishing said advertisements to add the duty or tax imposed by this act to the price of said advertisements any law, as aforesaid, to the contrary notwithstanding Provided further, That the receipts for advertisements to the amount of one thousand dollars by any person or persons, firm, or company publishing any newspaper, magazine, review or other literary, scientific, news publication issued periodically, shall be exempt from duty. And provided further, That all newspapers whose circulation does not exceed two thousand copies shall be exempted from all taxes for advertisements.

INCOME DUTY.

Sec 89 And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of modifying and re-enacting [illegible] provided [illegible] of an act entitled "An act to provide increased revenue from imports to pay interest on the public debt and for other purposes," approved [illegible] of August, eighteen hundred and sixty-one as relates to income tax that is to say, section [illegible] fifty-one (except so much thereof as relates to the selection and appointment of depositaries) and fifty one be and the same are hereby repealed

Sec 90 And be it further enacted, That there shall be levied collected, and paid annually, upon the annual gains profits, or income of every person residing in the United States whether derived from any kind of property, rents, interest, dividends, salaries or from any profession, trade, employment or vocation carried on in the United States or elsewhere or from any other source whatever, except as hereinafter mentioned if such [illegible] exceed the sum of six hundred dollars, and do not exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars, a duty of three per centum upon the amount of such annual gains, profits, or income [illegible] [illegible] exceeds the sum of ten thousand dollars a duty of five per centum upon the amount thereof exceeding six hundred dollars, and upon the gains, profits, or income, rents and dividends accruing upon any property, securities, or stocks owned in the United States by any citizen of the United States residing abroad, except [illegible] in the employment of the Government of the United States, there shall be levied, collected, and paid a duty of five per centum.

Sec 91 And be it further enacted, That in estimating said annual gains, profits, or income, whether subject to a duty as provided in this act, of three per centum or of five per centum, all other national, State, and local taxes, lawfully assessed upon the property, or other sources of income of any person as aforesaid, from which said income is derived, shall be first deducted from the gains, profits, or income of the person or persons who actually pay the same, whether owner or tenant, and all gains, profits or income derived from salaries of officers, or payments to persons in the civil, military, naval, or other service of the United States, including Senators, Representatives, and delegates in Congress, above six hundred dollars, or derived from interest or dividends on stock, capital or deposits, in any bank, trust company or savings institution, insurance, gas bridge, express, telegraph, steamboat, ferry boat or railroad company, or corporation, or on any bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of any railroad company or other corporation, which shall have been assessed and paid by said banks, trust companies, savings institutions insurance, gas bridge, telegraph, steamboat, ferry boat, express, or railroad companies, as aforesaid, or derived from advertisements or any articles manufactured upon which specific, stamp or ad valorem duties shall have been directly assessed or paid shall be deducted and the duty herein provided for shall be assessed and collected upon the income for the year ending the thirty first day of December next preceding the time for levying and collecting said duty, that is to say on the first day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty three and in each year thereafter Provided That upon such portion of said gains, profits or income, whether subject to a duty as provided in this act of three per centum or five per centum, which shall be derived from interest upon notes, bonds or other securities of the United States there shall be levied, collected and paid a duty not exceeding one and one half of one per centum, anything in this act to the contrary notwithstanding

Sec 92 And be it further enacted, That the duties on incomes herein imposed shall be due and payable on or before the thirtieth day of June, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty three, and in each year thereafter until and including the year eighteen hundred and sixty six and no longer, and to any sum or sums annually due and unpaid for thirty days after the thirtieth of June as aforesaid, and for ten days after demand thereof by the collector, there shall be levied, in addition thereto, the sum of five per centum on the amount of duties unpaid, as a penalty, except from the estates of deceased and insolvent persons, and if any person or persons, or party, liable to pay such duty, shall neglect or refuse to pay the same the amount due shall be a lien in favor of the United States from the time it was so due until paid, with the interest, penalties and costs that may accrue in addition thereto, upon all the property and rights to property, stocks, securities and debts of every description from which the income upon which said duty is assessed or levied shall have accrued or may or should accrue, and in default of the payment of said duty for the space of thirty days after the same shall have become due and be demanded, as aforesaid, said lien may be enforced by distraint upon such property, rights to property, stocks, securities, and evidences of debt, by whomsoever holden, and for this purpose the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, upon the certificate of the collector or deputy collector that said duty is due and unpaid for the space of ten days after notice duly given of the levy of such duty, shall issue a warrant, in form and manner to be prescribed by said Commissioner of Internal Revenue under the directions of the Secretary of the Treasury, and by virtue of such warrant there may be levied on such property, rights to property, stocks, securities, and evidences of debt, a further sum, to be fixed and stated in such warrant, over and above the said annual duty, interest, and penalty for non-payment, sufficient for the fees and expenses of such levy And in all cases of sale, as aforesaid, the certificate of such sale by the collector or deputy collector of the sale, shall give title to the purchaser of all right, title and interest of such delinquent in and to such property, whether the property be real or personal, and where the subject of sale shall be stocks the certificate of said sale shall be lawful authority and notice to the proper corporation, company, or association, to record the same on the books or records, in the same manner as if transferred or assigned by the person or party holding the same, to issue new certificates of stock therefor in lieu of any original or prior certificates, which shall be void, whether cancelled or not; and said certificates of sale of the collector or deputy collector, where the subject of sale shall be securities or other evidences of debt, shall be good and valid receipts to the person or party holding the same, as against any person or persons or other party holding, or claiming to hold, possession of such securities or other evidences of debt.

Sec. 93 And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of all persons of lawful age, and all guardians and trustees, whether such trustees are so by virtue of their office as executors, administrators, or other fiduciary capacity, to make return in the list or schedule as provided in this act, to the proper officer of internal revenue, of the amount of his or her income, or the income of such minors or persons as may be held in trust as aforesaid, according to the requirements hereinbefore stated, and in case of neglect or refusal to make such return, the assessor or assistant assessor shall assess the amount of his or her income, and proceed thereafter to collect the duty thereon in the same manner as is provided for in other cases of neglect and refusal to furnish lists or schedules in the general provisions of this act, where not otherwise incompatible, and the assistant assessor may increase the amount of the list or return of any party making such return, if he shall be satisfied that the same is understated Provided, That any party in his or her own behalf, or as guardian or trustee, as aforesaid, shall be permitted to declare, under oath or affirmation, the form and manner of which shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, that he or she was not possessed of an income of six hundred dollars, liable to be assessed according to the provisions of this act, or that he or she has been assessed elsewhere and the same year for an income duty, under authority of the United States, and shall thereupon be exempt from an income duty, or, if the list or return of any party shall have been increased by the assistant assessor in manner as aforesaid, he or she may be permitted to declare, as aforesaid, the amount of his or her annual income, or the amount held in trust, as aforesaid, liable to be assessed, as aforesaid, and the same so declared shall be received as the sum upon which duties are to be assessed and collected

STAMP DUTIES

Sec 94 And be it further enacted, That on and after the first day of October eighteen hundred and sixty-two, there shall be levied, collected, and paid, for and in respect of the several instruments, matters, and things mentioned and described in the schedule (marked B) hereunto annexed, or for or in respect of the vellum parchment, or paper upon which such instruments, matters, or things, or any of them, shall be written or printed, by any person or persons, or party who shall make, sign, or issue the same or for whose use or benefit the same shall be made, signed or issued the several duties or sums of money set down in figures against the same, respectively, or otherwise specified or set forth in the said schedule

Sec 95 And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall make, sign, or issue, or cause to be made signed, or issued, any instrument, document, or paper of any kind or description whatsoever without the same being duly stamped for denoting the duty hereby imposed thereon, or without having thereupon an adhesive stamp to denote said duty, such person or persons shall incur a penalty of fifty dollars and such instrument, document, or paper as aforesaid, shall be deemed invalid and of no effect

Sec 96 And be it further enacted, That no stamp appropriated to denote the duty charged on any particular instrument and bearing the name of such instrument on the face thereof, shall be used for denoting any other duty of the same amount, or if so used the same shall be of no avail

Sec 97 And be it further enacted That no vellum, parchment, or paper, bearing a stamp appropriated by name to any particular instrument, shall be used for any other purpose, or if so used the same shall be of no avail

WEDNESDAY MORNING OCT 22, 1862.

Gen Corcoran again in the Field

Gen Corcoran on his release by the rebels went directly to work in raising troops to assist in restoring the Government. In passing through Philadelphia to New York he was constrained to speak to the people in Independence Hall. He told the people that the Southern States have made up their minds not only to take all the territory they now claim to possess, but the whole country, if you will permit them. Now you have made up your minds not to let them have a foot, unless under the protection of the old flag. Now these are my views. I have entered into this fight for the maintenance of the laws and the Constitution, and I am going into the fight again. (Cheers.) I am going again to aid in restoring the Constitution. I am proud to be able to say that my countrymen are doing their share, and are ever willing to do their share, and I may say here to Americans "Look out for your laurels, or the Irishmen may pluck them from you." For myself, I am determined to seek no rest until we have restored the Constitution and the Union just as it was.

Gen. Corcoran then created intense enthusiasm among his auditors, by expressing his determination to raise a brigade, and received the hearty assurance that he should have a regiment from this city. He said if he had known that this war was going to last so long he would at the commencement have entered into a contract to have it put down by the Irish alone, and he believed they would have been successful, as they would have had enough men to crush the rebels at Manassas, and a victory there would have settled the war.

Gen. Corcoran thus concluded: I have ever been a lover of liberty all the world over, and a hater of despotism, and say now what I would not give the southerners the pleasure of hearing me say when I was among them, that if our Government had infringed on any of the rights of the South, as guarantied by the Constitution, I would have been one of the first to have gone with them.

Gen. Corcoran was long retained a prisoner on account of his great influence among our Irish-American citizens. He is now free and we are sure the rebels will hear from him.

NEW PAPER.—We have received the prospectus of a newspaper to be published at Eugene City, under the name of Eugene City Review. Its publication is to be commenced on the 1st of November next, by A Noltner & Co, and C H Miller as editor. These are the same parties who pulled on a secesh string through the columns of the traitorous Eugene Register, but finding that it created considerable discord in this latitude, they very (W)eight-ly discontinued its publication, and now they promise in the prospectus for their new paper, to carefully "avoid all comment of a political character."

OVERLAND IMMIGRATION.—Mr J M Pyle, connected with the Oregon Escort, in a communication to the Walla Walla Statesman estimates the number of immigrants to Oregon and Washington this year, at about 10,000; to California 8 000, and about 8 000 Mormons for Salt Lake. Brigham Young sent out 400 wagons to assist the latter.

FOR WASHINGTON.—Senator Harding and Hon J R McBride Congressman go East on the next steamer.

APPOINTMENTS.—The following appointments have been made by Gov Gibbs: Joel Palmer, Major General of Oregon Militia. T. H. Pearne, Brigadier General 1st district; O. Humason, Brigadier General 2d district; E L Applegate Brigadier General, 3d district; Richard Williams, Judge Advocate; Ralph Wilcox, Surgeon General; I Powell, A. G. Hovey, J H Mitchell and David M. Thompson, Aids-de-Camp to Commander-in-Chief. A C R Shaw, Warden of the Penitentiary. Wm Waldo and E F Gray, Notaries Public, Auburn Baker county. J G Wilson, of Salem has been appointed for the new district created east of the Cascades. Rufus Mallory, of Roseburg, has been appointed Prosecuting Attorney in place of Wilson, resigned.

INCORPORATIONS.—Articles of incorporation have been filed with the Secretary of State, under the General Incorporation Act, by the following companies: Oswego Portland Water Company, capital $1 600. John Days and Auburn Road Company, capital $20,000. Dalles R R Company, capital $800 000. Willamette Falls Canal Company capital, $150 000. Pioneer Bridge Company (Umatilla county) capital $3 000. First Portland Road Company, capital, $600. Columbia River Road Company, capital, $30,000.—Statesman.

Freedom to the Slaves in the Rebellious States

A PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States [illegible]

[illegible]

That the Executive will on the 1st day of January aforesaid by proclamation designate the States and parts of States in which the people thereof respectively shall then be in rebellion against the United States; and the fact that any State or the people thereof shall on that day be in good faith represented in the Congress of the United States by members chosen thereto at elections wherein a majority of the qualified voters of such State shall have participated, shall, in the absence of strong countervailing testimony, be deemed conclusive evidence that such State and the people thereof have not been in rebellion against the United States.

That attention is hereby called to an Act of Congress entitled "An act to make an additional article of war," approved March 13, 1862, and which act is in the words and figures following:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, that hereafter the following shall be promulgated as an additional article of war for the government of the army of the United States, and shall be obeyed and observed as such:

Art. 1st. All officers or persons in the military and naval service of the United States are prohibited from employing any of the forces under their respective commands for the purpose of returning fugitives from service or labor, who may have escaped from any person, to whom such service or labor is claimed to be due, and any officer who shall be found guilty by a court martial of violating this article, shall be dismissed from the service.

Art. 2d. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Also, to the 9th and 10th sections of an act entitled an act to suppress insurrection and to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels and other purposes, approved July 17th 1862, and which sections are in the words and figures following:

Sec 9. And be it further enacted, That all slaves of persons who shall hereafter be engaged in rebellion against the Government of the United States, or who shall in any way give aid or comfort thereto, and escaping from such persons and taking refuge within the lines of the army, and all slaves captured from such persons or deserted by them and coming under the control of the Government of the United States, and all slaves of such persons found on or being within any place occupied by the forces of the United States, shall be deemed captives of war and shall be forever free of their servitude and not again held as slaves.

Sec 10. And be it further enacted, That no slave escaping into any State, Territory or the District of Columbia from any of the States, shall be delivered up, or in any way impeded or hindered of his liberty, except for crime or some offence against the laws, unless the person claiming said fugitive shall first make oath that the person to whom the labor or service of such fugitive is alleged to be due is his lawful owner and has not borne arms against the United States in the present rebellion, nor in any way given aid and comfort thereto; and no person engaged in the military or naval service of the United States shall under any pretence whatever assume to decide on the validity of the claim of any person to the service or labor of any other person, or surrender up any such person to the claimant, on pain of being dismissed from the service.

And I do hereby enjoin upon and order all persons engaged in the military and naval service of the United States to observe, obey and enforce within their respective spheres of service the act and sections above recited. And the Executive will in due time recommend that all citizens of the United States who shall have remained loyal thereto throughout the rebellion shall upon the restoration of the constitutional relations between the United States and the respective States and the people thereof wherein the relation shall have been suspended or disturbed be compensated for all losses by acts of the United States including the loss of slaves.

In witness thereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington this 22d day of September in the year of our Lord 1862 and of the Independence of the United States the 87th.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

By the President,
WM H SEWARD, Secretary of State.

THE FALL ELECTIONS.—State and Congressional elections take place this Fall in New York, Pennsylvania and in many of the Western States. With so many hundreds of thousands of the able bodied men in those States in the Union army, we shall not be surprised to hear that a considerable number of opposition members are elected to Congress. A portion of these members will be [illegible] Democrats [illegible] a constitutional [illegible] tration and anti-war conservative Democrats. This class of men in the loyal States are all at home to vote. They never [illegible] drafting to any extent has not taken place. They are therefore at home [illegible] against the Administration, and [illegible] against the war now being prosecuted to [illegible] rebellion, while hundreds of thousands of Union men who if at home would vote for the Union and to sustain the Administration are deprived of the privilege because they have volunteered and are fighting the battles of their country. For these reasons we are prepared to hear of the election to Congress of quite a number of anti-Administration conservative half anti-war Democrats from the Middle and Western States.—[illegible]

Solomon Foot (Vt.) has been elected United States Senator to serve six years from the 4th of March.

NEW YORK, Oct 16.—Wm I. Hudson of the navy died suddenly at Brooklyn last night.

HARRISBURG, Oct 16.—The reported election of Speaker Grow in the 12th district is incorrect. He was defeated by 1,000 majority.

CLEVELAND, Oct 15th.—Dem [illegible] claim to have 10,000 to 15,000 majority on State ticket and 12 Congressmen.

The Indianapolis Dispatch giving a list of Congressmen elected is correct with the exception of 3d district in which Harrington (Democrat) is elected. Delegation will stand 6 democrats to 5 Union men.

Eastern News

WASHINGTON, Oct 14.—A dispatch from the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac dated October 14th, says: The news of the success of Stuart's raid into Pennsylvania in the rear of our army occasioned no unnecessary excitement among the troops, when it is taken into consideration that the river is made fordable in a number of places by the low stage of the water and that the army has a line of pickets extending from Cumberland Maryland, to Washington—a distance of a hundred and fifty miles. It is no easy matter for a large rebel force of cavalry to penetrate it. At the mouth of the Monocacy while making an attempt to cross, they were repulsed and nine of them captured. They then moved down the river three miles, and made good their escape.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct 14.—Last evening's Washington Star says, a man who arrived in that city from Conrad's Ferry, states that he was in General Stuart's presence a few minutes before crossing the river. Stuart informed him in a sarcastic tone that he had fooled the whole party, but regretted that he had not accomplished what he intended when he started, as he expected to reach Frederick, Md., to destroy the Government stores at that point, and then destroy the bridge over the Monocacy; but all things taken into consideration, he had carried out his programme with much success. Stuart's horses looked extremely exhausted, but he was in high glee.

LANCASTER, (Pa.) October 14.—Thaddeus Stevens was re-elected to Congress from this district to day by three thousand majority.

On Sunday October 14th a royal decree proclaiming an amnesty to Garibaldi and his followers was to be issued, excepting only deserters from the Royal army.

ARRIVAL OF THE EMIGRANT ESCORT.—Capt. Medorem Crawford, with the emigrant escort, numbering about 80 men, arrived in this city on Tuesday last. They arrived in good health, having made a very pleasant, successful and pleasant trip. Capt. Crawford informs us that they met with no difficulties whatever from Indians. He states also that the reported massacres of emigrants by Indians have been greatly exaggerated. The murders committed have been mostly of traders who came in [illegible] of the main emigration, stationing themselves at [illegible] along the road for the purpose of trading supplies and liquors to the emigrants. A few of the earlier emigrants [illegible] suffered from Indian depredations [illegible] in the vicinity of [illegible] the emigrants traveled in large parties. One trader, named [illegible] was killed in Smoky Creek Canyon [illegible] [illegible] this murder that [illegible] reports [illegible] the large amounts of money taken [illegible] emigrants murdered by the Indians. [illegible] had a number of [illegible] in the hands of [illegible] traded to by the [illegible] Capt. Crawford thinks it highly probable from some of the circumstances that there were white men [illegible] both in this [illegible] murders committed. He estimates that [illegible] that have crossed the plains this season to Washington and Oregon [illegible] about sixteen hundred [illegible] —Walla Walla Statesman.

[illegible] FAIR.—Dr. P. Prettyman proposes [illegible] County Fair all alone on the 23d [illegible] this city. See his advertisement.

[illegible]—Richard Fitzgerald had his [illegible] yesterday, while coming in from [illegible] track, by being thrown from a horse.

[illegible]—A deserter from the army was [illegible] out at the race course, yesterday. [illegible] will be taken to Fort Vancouver to-day.

[illegible]—See Louis Manning's billiard [illegible] in another column.

PERSONAL.—Hon. I. D. Haines, member of [illegible] from Jackson county, called [illegible] yesterday.

Also Henry Miller, who has been absent [illegible] year in the Salmon river country.

Murders on the Plains.

In a communication to the Washington [illegible] Mr. Pyle, of the Oregon Escort, gives the following list of murders which [illegible] to the notice of the Escort:

The first evidence of Indian depredations we saw was a grave at the crossing of New Fork of Green river, from the inscription on which we learned that Patrick Moran, of Missouri, was killed by Indians on the 18th July, and two other men were wounded. We passed this place August 11th, about three weeks after the murder was committed, at which [illegible] no Indians were to be seen.

[illegible] was a grave near Labarge creek, in the [illegible] Mountains, partially in the road. [illegible] bore the following inscription: "[illegible] by Kavanaugh's train, on the [illegible] July, 1862, the body of a man found too [illegible] for removal. One shot in his [illegible] and an arrow shot—supposed to have [illegible] killed by Indians."

[illegible] the 25th day of August, we passed the graves of the following persons, killed [illegible]: One unknown man, found by [illegible]'s party Aug. 13, 1862. He had [illegible] in the back of the head with buck-[illegible]

[illegible] miles farther there were five graves, [illegible] by side, of persons killed by Indians: [illegible] C. Mitchell, aged 21 years; N. Howie, [illegible] Gulch, Colorado Territory; James [illegible] of Colorado Territory; David Whitmer, [illegible] Sessions. This was in the vicinity of [illegible] and happened on the 9th of August [illegible] on the 25th.

[illegible] word of the ferrymen that while these [illegible] were slain by the Indians, twenty [illegible] white men of the same train, armed [illegible] stood upon the hill near by and [illegible] no attempt to rescue their comrades. [illegible] they showed any disposition to fight, the [illegible] men would have been saved. It [illegible] that white men had a hand in this [illegible]

[illegible] by the name of Charles Brown, one [illegible] at Fort Hall, was shot and badly wounded on the 24th of August. He made his escape by feigning to be dead. They [illegible] him naked, and left him to his fate. [illegible] Fort Hall and Raft river, we passed four graves of persons killed by Indians, [illegible]

[illegible] Hunter, of Iowa, August 9, 1862; [illegible] C. Lippi, August 9, 1862; Charles [illegible], of New York, August 9, 1862; [illegible], Iowa, August 10, 1862.

[illegible] crossing Raft river, we passed the grave of Miss E. J. Adams, aged 26 years, who was shot by Indians, August 9th, and died August 12th, 1862. We passed here [illegible] 22 days after the attack.

[illegible] notice near Goose creek on Snake [illegible], stating that Capt. Kennedy's train had [illegible] with the Indians on the 7th of [illegible], in which one Indian was killed and [illegible] white man wounded.

A Mr. Phillips, from Illinois, was taken [illegible] Goose creek, on Snake river. I [illegible] remember the exact date, but it was about a month before our arrival at that point. He left camp alone and unarmed, to join a [illegible] who were fishing on the river, and came [illegible] into an Indian camp. We afterwards learned from Col. Maury's guide that he was killed in a most barbarous manner.

It will be seen that the number of killed of which we have positive information, is about [illegible]. No emigrants were, at any time, troubled by Indians while in the vicinity of the Government Escort; nor did we see a single Indian from the time we left Fort Laramie until we met the Oregon soldiers at Salmon Falls, with the exception of one or two friendly Indians living with the ferrymen at Fort Hall. We were all anxious to meet some of them that we might test the accuracy of the Western rifle.

The health of the emigrants was excellent, and the deaths very few. We did not lose a man of our company.

KILLED BY INDIANS.—Two men were killed by Indians last week—one on Sweet Water, by a son of Pe-Peu-Mox-Mox, the former Walla Walla Chief; the other by a Nez Perce, near the Lapwai. The cause of the shooting and the names of the murdered men we have not learned. The Nez Perces Indian has been arrested.—Washington Statesman.

SEWING MACHINES

ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION

—AND—

Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order; should make a stitch alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity; and should have a straight needle; curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer; should stitch, fell, run and gather; and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored [illegible] silk above or below, to correspond with any [illegible] of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel-feed; no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, or ravel.

DR. BAKER'S

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oil and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and it will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day

If you have the Diarrhoea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

For the Oregon Farmer

Beautifying Homes.

After the shrubs have been planted say from 6 to 10 feet apart—not in rows, but in irregular clumps or patches—the next thing is to introduce a few hardy flowers, to make the whole as attractive as possible Ever blooming roses are of course here and there interspersed, the China or daily in front and the largest in the back ground Of the China, Louis Philippe, White Tea and Solfaterre, we would recommend to set amongst evergreens, and Madam Lafay, Giant of Battles, and La Reine of the perpetuals, would insure a constant bloom — Then we plant a few Moss Roses in the most shady and moist places If more shrubs are desired, the Spireas love shade, the Lilac and Snowball, the Deutzias and Japan Quince, Flowering Almond and Tree Peonies love sunny places; the Altheas, Wiegelias and Hydrangeas require a shady situation

These shrubs, thus planted and intermixed, would make, even in a small way a beautiful and home attractive spot; and while the bushes are small, a few plats of herbaceous flowers would give immediate satisfaction. Of perennials, I would name Tulips, Hyacinths, and Narcissus in the most sunny places, also Peonias, Lilacs love some shelter, a few of the double Holly hocks, with their brilliant colors, and Snap dragon and Wallflower, Columbine and Chrysanthemum dotted here and there would look far better than to see these stand by ones or twos on a bed. The modest Daisy and early Primrose love the shelter and shade of evergreens

Now all these shrubs and plants, once well set in rich soil would almost take care of themselves, at any rate they would only ask in the way of food, an annual winter top dressing with manure, the same forked in in the spring, and once or twice hoeing, and for years they will grow, and increase in attraction as they grow in size

But the lover of flowers will not be satisfied with this He or she must have a bed for annuals In brilliancy of colors and sweetness they surpass the perennials, and then they require more care and attention, and this is pleasure to the fair gardener, Oh, what would the world be without flowers? Let me see a nice garden before a house, and I can tell you what manner of people live there

Livingstone, in Africa, when on his journey of two years from the interior to the Atlantic Coast, sick and completely worn out, disheartened and in want of everything, when he came to Loanda he had his misgivings about the hospitality of the only Englishman there residing, as a wild speculating life makes men selfish, but when he saw a few well kept flowers before the door, his heart throbbed lighter, he was sure of a kind reception and a hospitable home, which he so much needed, and he was not mistaken; for months this kind English man entertained him

Yes, the flowers before the door are an index to the inmates within. Then who would not cultivate a small plat of ground in shrubs and flowers? H. M.

Fortunes Sunk.

We know a farmer sixty years old, who has worked hard for more than forty years He began with a good 150 acre farm given him, but subject to an incumbrance of about one third its value This was a good start He is, after a lapse of forty years, still in debt. He is temperate; had he not been, his farm would have gone long ago. He has worked hard; had he not, he must have failed. He has been economical, in its common meaning, or he never could have kept even with his creditors

What, then, has kept him back in the world? We have figured up, and found that he has virtually sunk three good estates, by want of management.

First. In wintering his cattle and sheep He kept, generally, about 20 cattle and 100 sheep. The cattle trod about three tons of hay under foot each year, and consumed half a ton each extra by exposure to the winds, in all 13 tons, worth $91 This exposure of cattle and calves reduced their size and market value one third—annual increase, 6 head, and average value lost, $3 each $18. Ten per cent of his sheep and lambs were lost by want of shelter, and the clip was diminished 25 per cent. from the same cause—total loss on sheep, per annum, $50. The whole yearly loss on cattle and sheep was, therefore, $189 In forty years this annual loss, with compound interest, would amount to about $35,000 Thus one fortune has been sunk

Secondly In want of good rotation of crops. He raised wheat after wheat, oats after oats, and corn after corn, because the stubble was most easily plowed, till his land was exhausted, and full of weeds. The crops, as a whole, hardly paid his labor A good rotation would have safely given him one-third more, which would have been a clear gain, on an average, of at least $5 an acre, on about 50 acres, yearly—total, $250 a year This loss repeated for 40 years, and interest, would amount to more than $50,000! This was the second fortune sunk.

Thirdly In raising crops of weeds—Some of his pasture fields had a heavier growth of mulleins, rag-weed, johnswort, and thistles, than of grass, consequently, at least half his land was wasted to grow them On 50 acres of pasture, at least $2 each were yearly wasted, to say nothing of the loss of grain by the Canada thistle patches, in retarding growth and preventing clean harvesting, and his greatly diminished crop of corn by fox tail and pig weed. The annual loss from weeds was, therefore, at least $100—the amount of which, with interest, in 40 years, would be $20,000. The third fortune sunk.

There are several other items of bad management that might be added, but these will do at present.

If any one doubts these estimates, let him examine carefully the amount raised by one of our best and thriftiest farmers, and from this amount deduct what is produced by a poor manager, then calculate compound interest, adding in the yearly loss, for forty years, (the period of active business,) and he will probably find that on 150 arable acres, not merely the $110,000 have been virtually sunk, but a much larger amount, however the yearly loss should be much less all we ask is that the reader may take that diminished amount and go carefully through the calculation and he will doubt less perceive why some men get rich at the business and others do not. [illegible] Annual Register
